Phnom Penh, 04 August 2009

STATEMENT

PARLIAMENTARIAN MU SOCHUA SHOULD NOT BE FINED

Human Rights Party (HRP) expresses great frustration for and does not support any decision requiring Mu Sochua to face unfair fine, which was issued by Phnom Penh municipal court on 04 August 2009.

Human Rights Party sees that lawmaker Mu Sochua has not broken the law; she is the dignitary victim who deserves the justice. However, the decision, by which she has to face the fine and lacks enough opportunity to legal self-protection, is unfair. HRP thinks that this can upgrade the fame of the current powerful to continue taking power, restricting, intimidating and violently defeating the fighters for freedom.

Human Rights Party supports and encourages lawmaker Mu Sochua; who is a role model of Cambodian women, a leading lawmaker and the one who provides warmth to the week who are the victims of dictatorship; to violently continue to struggle for freedom and justice.
