

Land Grabbing - Spoliation

Preah Vihear Deadly Eviction Aftermaths

A collection of photos taken the first and second day passed the deadly eviction of 317 families in Preah Vihear

The day after the eviction, authorities were still in heavy force throughout the area. In the background is a vehicle laden with bicycles and other property looted from the eviction families' home

Two of the many armed soldiers left behind 28 hours after the incident. The man standing is plucking a chicken that was taken from the community.

Houses were looted by authorities and subsequently burned down; remains were still smoldering on the second day after the deadly eviction.

The site where Oeun Eng's body was quickly cremated, on police instructions, without a proper Buddhist ceremony.

The site where Toeun Chheng's body was hastily buried in a shallow grave, on the orders of police.